

PSALM 23

- 1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

BIBLE STUDY

There has been much written about Psalm 23. There have also been many songs written with this Psalm's words. But how many of us really understand Who the good Shepherd is, what He is like and what we have to be like if we want to be like Him?

Instead of having a regular Bible study, we have a little test for you this time. It was prepared by Mr. Femi Adedoyin from the Mahomet fellowship. Mr. Adedoyin has done extensive studies on Psalm 23 and wrote the following questions for you to challenge you to meditate upon Psalm 23 and think about the good shepherd and His sheep. Enjoy!

1. Can you recite Psalm 23?
2. Who wrote this Psalm?
3. Who is a shepherd?
4. Have you seen a real shepherd before?
5. Who is the shepherd in this Psalm?
6. Who is the Lord?
7. What is the meaning of "the Lord?"
8. Why did the Lord call you and me His sheep?
9. What does a good shepherd do?
10. Who is the good shepherd?
11. Do you consider yourself a good sheep?
12. What is the difference between a good sheep and a bad sheep?
13. Do you think your Dad and Mom are good shepherds? Why?
14. Why does a shepherd work day and night?
15. Are you fully pleased with your shepherd?
16. Why should you be very satisfied with the shepherd?
