Jacob's Rescue

Written by: Malka Drucker and Michael Halperin

This book is a true story. It took place in the time during World War II when Adolf Hitler and the Nazis were taking power over many countries in Europe.

Jacob was a regular boy doing what boys do. But, when World War II started, it changed his life forever! Jacob's mother died giving birth to his younger brother, David. His father, grandpa and uncles left Poland when the war had started, leaving Jacob with his grandma and aunt who got taken to the ghetto. The ghetto was a part of the city surrounded by walls. It was dirty and unsanitary. It was like a prison house.

Jacob and his family were Jewish, but soon it was not safe to live in the ghetto, so Jacob's Aunt Hanna had arranged for a Polish family to hide him. Jacob was adopted by Alex and Mela Roslan who had two children named Yurek & Marrishka. Jacob was given a Polish name but I can't tell you what it is! You have to read it to find out. Jacob came to an obstacle course in his life by getting very sick and almost being discovered in hiding.

I like this book because it shows a boy that went through so many things and still trusted in God. In all his trials and tribulations, Jacob knew that God was always there. Jacob also had a good skill with math (my least favorite school subject). Jacob had courage, love and hope.

P.S. Read this book to find out a tragedy that happens twice to Jacob.
